LABOR LEADERS ENGAGE IN FIGHT ON CONVENTION FLOOR

CAUSED BY RESOLUTION PRAISING HOWATT, KANSAS MINE LEADER

(By United Press.) Cincinnati, June 20.—The American Federation of Labor convention was thrown into a lively scrap today over a resolution congratulating Alexander Howatt, Kansas mine leader, for his "courageous and steadfast determination to uphold the law."

Frank Lynam, Peoria, Illinois mine leader, and author of the resolution, declared John L. Lewis, president of the mine workers, was responsible for Howatt being thrown in jail for opposition to the Kansas industrial court law. Lewis said Lynam was a "liar," Lynam and Lewis fought on the floor of the convention for some time, and Samuel Gompers had difficulty in restoring order.

The scrap was finally ended by sending the resolution to the mine workers for action, which Lynam had opposed.

An effort to organize opposition to Gompers as president of the American Federation of Labor was started today among convention delegates. Gompers opponents have refused to accept as final the announcement by Lewis that he would not be a candidate against Gompers. They hope to prove to Lewis that they have enough strength to make it worth while to run.

Union Leaders Ready

Cincinnati, June 20.—Railroad workers and their allies, the striking miners, will be prepared to meet any kind of an attack that may be launched against them in the event of a rail strike on joint action, directed by railroad men and miners, leaders said today on the eve of the conference for "common dissent."

As the miners representatives prepared to take up formally with the railroad union men the latter's proposal for cooperative action, it was intimated that court action or intervention by the government to block the rail strike, would not surprise the allied leaders.

"We are prepared for anything. I am not going to tip off our plans, but I will say we are going to be ready for whatever comes," said a railroad union executive today.

The first formal conference of the railroad and miners group tonight will be attended by counsels of both sides, it was expected. There is a fear in the camps of both miners and railroad men that the strike war will get into court. It may be that they will be assailed on a charge of conspiring together to tip up interstate commerce or that an injunction will be brought to prevent use of union funds in financing the strike.

Leaders today said that they had no definite information as to any proposed governmental action, but a feeling that something of the kind would occur, was felt by union leaders, who said the court was "our opponents' best weapon."

REPORT TO HOUSE DENOUNCES FORD'S MUSCLE SHOALS OFFER

(By United Press.) Washington, June 20.—Henry Ford's offer for the Muscle Shoals nitrate and power plant is called a fraud and an attempt to rob the government, in a report filed with the house today by five members of the house military affairs committee.

The report denounced the Ford bid in the strongest and bitterest terms, and urges congress to authorize the secretary of war to call for a new offer.

The report is entitled, "The Truth About the Ford Offer."

The signers were all republicans. Three more republicans, it is said, will sign the report later.

Signing of the republicans revealed more serious opposition than had been counted on from republican members of the military affairs committee.

The substance of the complaint in the report is that the government loses all and gains nothing under the Ford offer, which the report declared "has been misrepresented to the committee by one of the worst propaganda ever seen."

CITY OF CANTON IS BEING BOMBARDED BY YAT SEN FLEET

TWO AMERICAN BUILDINGS HAVE BEEN DAMAGED; PROTEST MADE BY U. S. CONSUL

(By United Press.) Washington, June 20.—Further bombardment of Canton is imminent, American Minister Schurman at Peking has advised Rear Admiral Strauss, commander of the American frontier in Asiatic points, that American life and property may be in need of immediate protection, it was announced at the state department today.

Schurman forwarded to the department reports from J. C. Houston, American consul at Canton, which stated the first attack on Canton by Sun Yat Sen had resulted in seriously damaging two American buildings. Houston reported he had protested to the former South China president against the damage. Sun Yat Sen replied that while he planned to again bombard Canton he would not turn on the American buildings unless fired upon from there.

The state department advises from Peking generally confirmed the report of the overthrow of Chin Suang Ming.

CROP OUTLOOK GOOD IN STATE

(By United Press.) St. Paul, June 20.—The Minnesota department of agriculture issued the following crop report today.

Rains have been beneficial to all crops throughout the state, although there was some complaint that oats and rye have been slightly damaged in some southwestern counties. The outlook for the state as a whole is still very favorable.

GLAND OPERATION KNOWN FOR YEARS TO MEDICAL PROFESSION

PERFORMED SEVERAL TIMES IN PARIS, SUCCESSFUL ON CONVICT, MCCORMICK REJUVENATED

(By United Press.) Chicago, June 20.—Transplanting of human glands or similar operations never realized by the general public, has been known to the medical profession for several years. Several physicians in many cities have been experimenting with transferring of glands purchased by the wealthy from young and vigorous men who needed funds.

The operation on Harold F. McCormick for the life giving glands which were reported to have been grafted on the 51-year-old millionaire, has merely served to attract the public to the operations which have been known for years in several states.

This surgeon admitted he had conducted frequent experiments and operations in transferring purchased glands from the body of one to another.

McCormick's speedy improvement was reported today, and it was believed he was about ready to leave the Wesley Memorial hospital where he has been confined for ten days.

Performed in Germany

Paris, June 20.—Gland transplanting such as that which Harold F. McCormick is reported to have undergone, has been performed several times in Germany but with only partial success, Dr. Serge Voronoss, famous surgeon, said today in an interview.

"This indifferent success," he said, "was due to the fact that the patient from whom the gland was taken for transplanting was not entirely healthy. However, if a man can be found willing to part with the gland, it is an excellent method."

Dr. Voronoss announced that he is practicing gland operations at the present time, and will be ready to make an important revelation in the autumn. Meanwhile, he is working secretly.

Convict Adds Testimonial

San Quentin Penitentiary, Cal., June 20.—If gland transplanting operations will do for a millionaire what they have done for a convict, then Harold F. McCormick, wealthy Chicagoan, reported to have undergone such an operation, has a long life of youthful vigor ahead of him.

"Mr. X," age 75, is serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for murder. He ran down two flights of stairs with the vigorous quick step of youth and told the story today of transplanting of glands on him after being convicted of murder.

Dr. L. L. Stanley, who since 1918 has performed gland operations on prisoners here, confirmed the statement of Mr. X, whose name for certain reasons was withheld.

"Before I underwent the operation about three years ago," said Mr. X, "I was sick and in the hospital frequently. But now I am enjoying life. I would almost say that this operation was worth my term in prison."

SHOTS HIT BUILDING IN WHICH ULSTER PREMIER IS SLEEPING

(By United Press.) Belfast, June 20.—Several bullets last night struck the building in which Sir James Craig, Ulster premier, and his wife were sleeping. It was reported here today. Details of the attack were lacking.

INVITE RUSSIA TO SEND DELEGATES TO HAGUE PARLEY

(By United Press.) The Hague, June 20.—Russia today will be invited to send representatives to the conference at the Hague.

Representatives of the powers gathered here today were drafting a communication to the Soviet government informing it of preliminary discussions of the conference. The personnel of the various commissions that have been set up, sent the invitation to send a spokesman here to "solve the Russian problem."

However, these different commissions have no formulae or basis of discussion because the allies have not yet agreed on these matters themselves and the British objected to any set times such as the French desired. The British feel Russia would regard such an act as an ultimatum, and assume a defiant attitude.

Russian Invitation Forwarded

The Hague, June 20.—The formal invitation to the Russians to come to The Hague to negotiate on the basis of the Genoa agreement, was forwarded by foreign minister, Von Karnebeck of the Netherlands.

TWO BOYS LOSE LIVES IN CAVE-IN

(By United Press.) Minneapolis, June 20.—Glenn Warner, 8, son of Mayor and Mrs. Jacob Warner, of St. Louis Park, and John McCarthy, 9, lost their lives in a cave-in while playing in the municipal sand at St. Louis park yesterday.

No one saw the accident and the bodies were not recovered until the parents, alarmed when the boys did not return home for dinner, started out in search for them.

(By United Press.) Eagle Pass, Texas, June 20.—After reaching the stage of 50 feet, the highest point in 56 years, the Rio Grande was falling slowly today.

At Laredo, below, it was rising at the rate of one foot an hour, with the crisis expected late today.

A hard flood was suffered at Mission, Texas, when the levee broke, despite the efforts of over 3,000 volunteers.

ESCAPED CONVICT CAPTURED TODAY

(By United Press.) Ossining, N. Y., June 20.—Charles Greer, "the killer," who escaped from Sing Sing, was captured today at Harman, three miles from the prison.

STATE CONVENTION ENDORSEES LEAD IN STATE PRIMARIES

ON BOTH DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN TICKETS; KELLOGG AND PREUS

FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY OF STATE A WOMAN HAS BEEN NOMINATED FOR SENATOR

(By United Press.) St. Paul, June 20.—For the first time in the history of the state of Minnesota, a woman has been nominated to run for the United States senate.

Mrs. Anna D. Olesen, endorsed by the democratic party convention, has apparently been nominated to be the party's candidate for senator in the November election.

The republican convention candidates for state offices scored victories in accordance with the general expectation. Returns up to noon today showed the following will be the opponents at the next general election:

Governor J. A. O. Preus leads Ellsworth 17,632 to 8,295 out of 241 precincts on the same ticket.

Associate Justice of Supreme Court, James Quinn, without party; Archie Vernon and William A. Anderson, still in doubt.

CONFESSED SLAYER OF SOCIAL WORKER GETS LIFE SENTENCE

(By United Press.) Jackson, Mich., June 20.—George Straut, who confessed to the slaying of Miss Alice Mallett, social worker, with an axe, plead guilty in circuit court here today and was sentenced to life imprisonment, solitary confinement and hard labor, in the state penitentiary.

Backed by a guard of heavily armed police to prevent mob violence, he was taken from Lansing to Jackson. Judge Benjamin Williams passed the sentence.

BIGAMOUS MARRIAGES AT HOLLYWOOD COLONY WILL BE PROSECUTED

What Dr. Osgood Says About His Living Trust

UP to about five years ago Dr. Osgood had always handled his own investments. But he was a busy man whose time was valuable. So he created a Living Trust under which Wells-Dickey Trust Company now relieves him of all investment cares. Now he says—

"The professional time which your arrangement has saved me, has already paid your small charges several times over."

"My estate never really began to grow until you began to make all my investments. SAFETY FIRST ON THE M. & I.

President W. H. Gemmell Cautions
Automobilists to Exercise Care
at Railway Crossings

140 GRADE CROSSINGS ON RY.

Drivers Should Take No Chances and Be Sure He's Safe Before He Crosses Tracks

"Safety first" is the motto of the Minnesota & International railway as enunciated by President W. H. Gemmell.

In a recent statement he said there are at present about 140 grade crossings on the Minnesota & International railway and 10 on the Big Fork and International Falls railway, and as the country develops and new roads are opened up, additional crossings are required. Crossing signs are placed at all public crossings, which are notice and warning to the public on approaching them that they are about to cross railroad tracks.

Remember that an engine, train or gasoline track motor car may be passing over these tracks at any time. The public are cautioned that they have a duty to themselves to perform if accidents are to be avoided. They must stop and look and listen before attempting to cross a railroad track, if they are to be sure they can do so safely.

One hundred per cent of the terrible and distressing crossing accidents that happen are caused by the drivers of cars and teams failing to exercise the ordinary care that is expected of prudent men and women in the interests of themselves and their families. Does this seem like a strong statement? Think it over. How can it be otherwise? The engine must keep the rails, and a train cannot be stopped in a short distance. The automobile is a "free lace", under your absolute control. Your safety and that of others depends entirely upon yourselves.

Take no chances.

Be sure it is safe to do so before you cross a railroad track.

Commencement Exercises

Devils Lake, June 20.—Alumni gathered here during the week for the commencement exercises at the State School for the Deaf, opened their annual meeting today.

Present are former students from Chicago, Twin Cities, Sioux Falls, Winnipeg, and all parts of North Dakota.

Since their formation under the guidance of the late Supt. Frank Reed the North Dakota school for the deaf alumni association have sought to establish the idea that though nature deprived them of one valuable sense, she gave them the courage and determination which had permitted the deaf, in spite of their handicap, to meet success in every undertaking as great as their more fortunate brothers and sisters have achieved.

They deplore greatly fakers who beg under the pretense of being deaf, and promulgate the theory that the deaf in these days have no excuse to be other than self-supporting.

Intermarriage among alumni of the school is very frequent.

Legion Convention at Devils Lake
Devils Lake, June 20.—It's up to the devil not to make good. For weeks North Dakota has been plastered with rather startling posters bearing his Satanic majesty's picture and promise:

"The devil promises you a hot time in Devils Lake, June 20-22." It was the announcement of the live American Legion publicity committee that Devils Lake intended to make this year's convention a place setter. Nationally famous characters will address the meeting.

National Commander Hanford MacNider, speaks here today. Judge K. M. Landis, "czar" of baseball is here tomorrow; and Ed J. Elvers, Portland, Ore., national head of the Legion's play society, the box car organization "Hommes 40, Cheveaux 8" is slated for Thursday, the closing day. An invitation was extended to "Black Jack" Pershing, who was forced to decline.

With the opening of the convention today, much interest centers on the annual contest for state headquarters. Selection of the state adjutant determines the headquarters city, therefore campaigns have been underway for weeks for Jack Williams, Fargo, present adjutant; K. W. Upshaw, Jamestown and Bob Lowe, Minot, all candidates.

Geo. H. Russ, Jr., Bismarck, and M. H. Sprague, Grafton, are out for state commander.

Although many invitations will be extended, either Wahpeton or New Rockford, will get the 1923 convention. New Rockford has sent over a colored jazz band in answer to the threat on the banner which Wahpeton has been floating above their headquarters for several days; "The Devil will know we are here."

There is every indication that the matter of legion entering politics will be one of the big questions before the business sessions.

A wonderful program of amusement sports and entertainment has been arranged.

A Lake on Shipboard.

When one contemplates that so much energy is exerted to the end of keeping the water out of a ship, it looms up as an astonishing fact that there is of necessity a great deal of water within the hull of the vessel. A modern liner has enough water in her hull to make a good-sized lake. About 1,740 tons of water is carried by a big passenger vessel. The drinking water for the use of passengers amounts to 550, and there are about 830 tons of sea water being used for ballast. The six boilers contain 300 tons. The tanks are situated between the double hulls of the vessel.

BUTTON! BUTTON! WHO'S GOT THE BUTTON?

Button, button! Whose got the button? And we'll all answer: "I have!" for June 30th and July 1 between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 8:30 p. m. 5,000 celluloid buttons advertising the Fiftieth Anniversary and Home Coming week will be in the hands of eighty young women of the city for distribution. These buttons are attractive in color, and bear the significant words "I have," meaning the wearer has contributed toward the celebration expenses.

This celebration is really a big birthday party, marking the rounding out of fifty years of continued prosperity. We all want our birthday party to be the "best ever," an event long to be remembered by those near and far. Though a great many of our guests will be old timers, and those who have lived in Brainerd at some time or other, many will be strangers who will view our little city for the first time. If the place makes a good impression it may mean the turning point in Brainerd's career.

You know how it is yourself. When you are giving a party, don't you polish everything up, get out the best you have, arrange the furniture to the best advantage, and perhaps even borrow a piano lamp from the neighbors, to brighten things up a bit? Well, it's about the same when a city gives a birthday party. We want things to be at their very best, with the streets all decorated, and streamers flying and bands playing, and amusements galore, so that our guests won't have one dull moment.

But all this costs money, so let's all put our shoulders to the wheel, and make this celebration a success by the assurance of adequate means. Each one who wears one of these buttons will feel that his dollar is invested in something that will bring returns for many years. Brainerd and its celebration is being talked of from here to the coast. A tide of prosperity will follow in the wake of this celebration, and we will all be proud to have had a share in bringing the spot light to bear on our Brainerd.

LOOKING BACKWARD

READERS of the Dispatch have been kept fully informed, in minute detail, in our local news columns, of all that has been done, and what yet remains to be done, the week of July 3-9, to celebrate in a fitting manner Brainerd's 50th anniversary as a city, and in this article it is our purpose only to refer briefly to the earlier history of the town before it became a city.

The site of the present thriving city of Brainerd was in the first months of the year 1870 a level plateau covered with a dense forest of pine trees, and for many years after the small frontier settlement had grown into a bustling young western city it was generally known as the "City of the Pines."

In 1870 the Northern Pacific railroad began construction at a point near Duluth, and the same year the line was completed to where the city of Brainerd now stands. The railway officials early recognized the strategic position of Brainerd and located their great machine and locomotive shops and supply yards here. These shops were first established here in 1870.

The city is located in almost the exact geographical center of the state, and as Minnesota is in the center of the North American continent, Brainerd can appropriately be designated the "hub" of the continent. A brief review of the history of the city will show most forcibly and satisfactorily its steady growth from June, 1870, when the Northern Pacific surveyed its line to the Mississippi river crossing at this point.

Brainerd, so-called in honor of the wife of Gov. J. Gregory Smith, the first president of the Northern Pacific, whose maiden name was Brainerd, was first known as such in 1870. Just 52 years, then, marks the age of town and city. The town was platted in the fall of 1870 and recorded Sept. 29, 1871. In 1871 Brainerd became the county seat of Crow Wing county, and the same year the first postoffice was established here. A court house and jail were erected soon afterwards.

During the latter part of 1872 a charter was obtained, authorizing the organization of the city of Brainerd, and in January, 1873, the first common council was organized. The census in 1880 gave the population of the town as 1,864; in 1910 it was 7,524; in 1920, 9,591.

The Northern Pacific shops, it has been well said, "have long been the backbone of the city's industrial life." The vast forests which covered the region surrounding the city were the first outside sources of wealth and income for the people of the town. There are scattered thickly in the country surrounding the city hundreds of beautiful lakes, and these are strong points of attraction during the summer season to tourists and anglers from other states. For all this country now rapidly coming into its own, with its great dairying and farming interests, its iron mines, etc., Brainerd is the central point.

We cordially invite the absent "old-timers" to come to Brainerd our "home-coming week" and note the many great changes and important improvements in the city; and we also invite the public generally to visit with us and help us celebrate upon that occasion. They will be warmly welcomed and hospitably entertained, and will be convinced with us that the whilom "City of the Pines" confidently awaits the coming of its triumph.

DISCUSSING FOREIGN WAR DEBTS

THE foreign nations which are World war debtors of this country have begun submitting to the Allied debt funding commission statements of their financial conditions in the light of their obligations to the United States.

Two nations, it is announced from the Treasury department, have presented briefs of their fiscal conditions in connection with the debts to this country. The names of the two are withheld. Their statements are being analyzed by the commission, it is explained, and will be very helpful when the negotiations for the funding of the obligations are begun.

It was announced from the foreign office in Paris this week that the departure from France of the mission which will discuss the war debts question with representatives of the United States was imminent.

A WILSON PRECEDENT

AMBASSADOR RICCI, of Italy, cites President Wilson's interference in the Fiume incident as a precedent for his own discussions of American domestic policies. But Mr. Ricci can hardly justify himself on that ground.

The former President, it is true, took an unwarranted part in Italy's affairs, but he was certainly not representing the American people when he did so. At the very first opportunity he was recalled by an unprecedented plurality of votes. It may be, however, that the Italian ambassador, likewise, does not correctly interpret the wishes of his people when he interferes in American affairs.

BRITAIN WILL RATIFY TREATIES

THE British government, it is announced, has decided to ratify all the treaties negotiated at the recent Washington conference, with the exception of the naval treaty, by simple act of the privy council and without submission to either house of Parliament. The naval treaty is regarded as proper consideration by the Parliament, not directly, but in the form of a bill to give effect to its provisions, for the reason that authorization must be had for the scrapping of many ships and other reductions and changes in the naval establishment involving appropriations.

A GREAT "No More War" demonstration is planned as the culminating feature of the Twenty-second International Peace Congress, to be held in London in July. "Never Again" will be the motto of the Congress for its sessions, which fall on the week preceding the eighth anniversary of the outbreak of the World war.

CAMPAIGN IS WARMING UP IN CALIFORNIA

(By United Press)
San Francisco, June 20.—Thomas Lee Woolwine, militant district attorney of Los Angeles, has thrown the first dash of pepper into California's political pot.

His announcement that he would become candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor at the primaries still more than two months away, put a little edge on the heretofore rather flat mixture which the pot contained.

Senator Hiram Johnson was first expected to form a storm center in the primary campaign, but weeks have gone by and one after another the available men to oppose Johnson have decided they did not care to run against him for republican senatorial honors.

At this time it would look as if the primaries would be little more interesting than a curtain raiser at a four round boxing show and that California must look to the general election in November for its excitement.

Woolwine's announcement that he would seek the democratic nomination for governor, followed announcement by former U. S. Senator James D. Phelan that he would not run for the governorship. This left Woolwine as the dominating figure in the democratic ranks.

Republican candidates for the nomination include Friend William Richardson, state treasurer and newspaper publisher, of Berkeley, Cal., who has strong backing in both northern and southern California; Governor Wm. D. Stephens, who has more strength in southern California whence he comes than in the north; and possibly James Rolph, Jr., mayor of San Francisco. Rolph has made no announcement however. Efforts to get Clyde Seavey, city manager of Sacramento, to run as the "people's candidate" thus far have been fruitless.

Close observers expressed the opinion that at the general election the republican choice would face Woolwine in a hot campaign.

Woolwine has gained prominence on account of his leading part in the many criminal prosecutions of nationwide interest in which he has been the guiding hand.

Stands on His Record

"I stand on my record as district attorney," Woolwine said in his announcement.

This record includes:

Investigation of the Ku Klux Klan, in which Woolwine is declared by many persons to have broken the strength of the organization on the Pacific coast.

Prosecution and conviction of Harry S. New, who claimed to be the son of United States Senator Harry S. New, of Indiana, for the murder of Frieda Lesser, his girl sweetheart.

Investigation of the William Desmond Taylor murder mystery which, Woolwine says, is not yet over.

Prosecution of Madalynne Obenchain and Arthur Burch for the alleged murder of J. Belton Kennedy.

Prosecution and conviction of Mrs. Lofie Louise Peete, of Denver, for the weird murder of Jacob Denton, wealthy mining man.

Woolwine's friends believe his record will bring him state-wide strength.

Afraid of Johnson

While interest outside of California may center on the question of whether Senator Johnson is to be returned to Washington, interest in the senatorship has lagged, although maybe temporarily, as a result of failure of candidates to come forward.

Chester H. Rowell, one of Johnson's original supporters, and former newspaper publisher; Charles C. Moore, who was president of the San Francisco Exposition of 1915 and who is head of an engineering firm; Mayor Rolph of San Francisco; David P. Barrows, who has just resigned as president of the University of California; and perhaps a half dozen lesser lights, all have had their turns at being "prominently mentioned" and each in turn has failed to hear the call.

Some believe there is still a chance of bringing Rolph or Barrows forward as an anti-Johnson crusader.

But most politicians seem a little bit reticent about braving the wrath of California's fighting senator.

Engstrom ordered the two men to stop at a street intersection and they opened fire instead. After wounding Engstrom, the men escaped. The officer was taken to a general hospital.

"Your daughter has the worst voice I ever heard. She ought to have it filed."

Provokes Parental Profanity.

An amusing comment on the quality of the government telephone service in Great Britain was recently made by an American woman temporarily residing in London with her husband and little boy. She said that, whenever her husband answered the telephone, or picked up the receiver to make a call, it was a household rule that she must without fail immediately entice her son out of the room and as far away as possible, in order that the boy might not hear her husband swear, as he inevitably would.

Gallant Elevator Operator.

In a downtown building several people were waiting for the elevator. The car was crowded when a lady stepping in attempted to pull friend husband along. The alert operator called, "Just one more, that is all," and pushed the gentleman back. "So you want to separate us," said the lady. "Yes," was the answer; "I would rather separate you this way than the other way."—San Francisco Argonaut.

MOULDERS ARE OUT AT THE FOUNDRY

Forty-five Men Fail to Report for Work at Parker & Topping Company Tuesday Morning

WAGE SCALE IS CONTENTION

Men Demand 75 Cents, and Company Has Offered Them 70 Cents—Meetings Tuesday

Forty-five molders of Parker & Topping company failed to report for work Tuesday morning at the foundry.

For some period the wage scale has been under discussion. The men in the past received 80 cents an hour. Since early June the company proposed 70 cents an hour and the men, it is reported, proposed 75 cents an hour.

Negotiations have been carried on some and an agreement was not reached. At 5 o'clock Monday afternoon the molders met outside the shop and there conferred with Mr. Webb. The men had further meetings at the Labor hall Tuesday.

Sixty helpers continued work today but will probably have to lay off to-night.

AMUSEMENTS

"Over the Hill"

The local screen never has presented anything more tender and more beautiful than the William Fox picture "Over the Hill," which opened at the Lyceum theatre last night.

The story is based upon a theme that is no stranger in literary and dramatic works; but seldom, if ever, has the subject of divine mother love received so reverent and dignified an exposition as is revealed in the beautiful screened story adapted from two poems that have been recited more in school room and on the lecture platform than those of any other American poet.

Will Carleton, whose "Farm Ballads" captured the popular heart many years ago, provided the motif of the story, which Paul H. Sloane, a well-known young screen writer, has worked into one of the strongest picture plays ever devised.

OVER THE HILL

The simplicity and humanness of the tale won a capacity audience at the Lyceum theatre last night from the start. In fact, it is doubtful if any other theatrical attraction in recent years seen in this city has gained such distinct and enthusiastic favor as has "Over the Hill."

The remarkable hold of the play on its spectators caused scenes among them that will live as long as will memory of the picture itself. The audience was alternately swept by laughter and deep emotion throughout the performance.

The remarkable exposition of the little mother's life story found its way deep into the hearts of men and women alike. "Over the Hill" has scored a triumph here, as it did during its run of one solid year on Broadway, New York. It is to be repeated again tonight for the last time.

"Doug" MacLean Coming

"The Home Stretch," Douglas MacLean's latest Paramount-Ince starring vehicle, has been announced as the feature attraction at the Lyceum theatre for two days beginning Wednesday.

With the story hinging on the gambling proclivities of a young horseowner and his difficulties in freeing himself from the influence of the Goddess of Chance, "The Home Stretch" is said to afford MacLean one of the most entertaining roles of his popular career.

"The Lotus Eater" Has List of Stars

The greatest talent in the motion picture industry has been enlisted in making "The Lotus Eater," an Associated First National attraction, which will be shown last time tonight.

John Barrymore stars in it. Marshall Neilan directed it. Albert Payson Terhune wrote the story.

George Ade wrote the subtitles. Wesley Barry, Coleen Moore, Anna Q. Nilsson, J. Barney Sherry, Ida Waterman and Frank Currier are in the supporting cast.

Because of this unusual combination of the best in every line, "The Lotus Eater" is one of the most remarkable productions ever made. But the story alone was sufficient to guarantee the success of the picture.

Acting, direction, story and titling have been blended into such a perfect production that "The Lotus Eater" has set a new standard in motion pictures.

CONSTANCE TALMADGE

Constance Talmadge may scare 'em in the harem costume in which she appears in her latest picture "Polly of the Follies" at the New Park on Wednesday and Thursday. If the fans are a bit astonished it will be because they have never before seen the winsome star in such garb. Certainly, it will not be because of any lack of pulchritude because the charming miss has never been more appealing than in her donning of Byzantine raiment.

After Polly realizes her ambition to go on the stage she has her first part as a chorus girl in a harem scene.

Ann Little Wins Race

Chain Lightning, the wonder horse of the year, was ridden to victory in the Midvale Handicap by Peggy Pomeroy, who by her sensational and unexpected entry into the race at the last moment, succeeded in rehabilitating the family fortunes.

Learning that Red Rollins, the jockey who was scheduled to ride Chain Lightning, had arranged to throw the race she took his place at the last moment and brought the horse in under the wire by the closest margin, but nevertheless close enough to assure her father of saving all he had risked on the Midvale Classic.

This sensational race, which is said to be one of the most exciting ever seen, forms but a brief part of the entertaining feature "Chain Lightning," which comes to the New Park on Friday and Saturday and Peggy Pomeroy is played by the personable Ann Little.

Former Texas Governor and Wife to Run for United States Senate

Mrs. Myriam A. Ferguson, wife of former Governor James E. Ferguson, of Texas, who was impeached during his second term of office, Ferguson decided not to take any chances of being ruled ineligible so he solved the problem by getting his wife to be a candidate. The result is that when the State Democratic Committee meets in Austin the committeemen will find applications by husband and wife for the same office. If Ferguson's name is not allowed to go on the ticket because of his impeachment, his wife will make the Senate race and in this event Ferguson will campaign for her and if elected he will act as her private secretary.

PARIS ETCHER FOUND ARTIST

Marketed Prints Which Brought Fame to Soldier of the American Expeditionary Force.

Alonso C. Webb, the American soldier who has won sudden fame in Paris art circles by his distinctive etchings, was content to pass his prints out among his friends. One day, however, while he was having his etchings printed by the old-fashioned process called "taille douce," the printer said: "Why don't you sell these etchings?" "They're not good enough," replied Webb.

"You're crazy," said the printer; "you wouldn't mind selling them, would you? Don't you need the money?"

"Yes, God knows I need it, but I never thought of selling these things," rejoined Webb.

The old man gave Webb a note to a dealer in the Rue de Rivoli who took "on depot" one each of five prints. The very next day Webb received a letter at his home at Bellevue, asking for three more to replace those the dealer had sold the first day.

"That must have been a happy morning at Bellevue," I remarked, somewhat stirred at this turning point in the life story.

"Not especially," Webb replied. "I'm partly Scotch and don't often get excited. I take good luck just as I take bad. I rarely even tell about good luck."

"But don't you deprive yourself of a delightful thrill?"

"The pleasure is no less in the aggregate. I take it in a quieter form; it lasts longer and there is no reaction,"—Charles H. Grasty in the New York Times.

Arabs Use Opium Bait.

A novel way of catching fish by Arabs was described by Lieutenant Commander A. S. Elwell-Sutton in describing the work of the British gunboats on the river Tigris above Bagdad. The natives, there, he said, laid a ground bait of lumps of dough containing a small quantity of opium. The fish swallowed that and, becoming stupefied, floated about with their white bellies upmost. Arabs went in pursuit of them on blown-out sheepskins which they maneuvered with their feet while the hands were free to hold the landing net.
